that anna has secretly given her poems to people around the world turning her into a literary sensation harvey is swept up in the frenzy and becomes infamous when his poem is stolen this novel is a tribute to poetry and a critique of celebrity culture following the violent death of his father gershwin burr descends into a seemingly inescapable depression until not so accidentally he discovers a remedy for his condition he steals a book and finds his mood has lightened before long he s stealing indiscriminately while refining his skills as a professional thief and amassing a small fortune despite mounting pressure from his wife to go straight and from his own tortured conscience he can t find the desire or motivation to change uncertain about how to proceed the matter is taken out of his hands when his secret is betrayed by someone whose identity is a mystery to him arrested charged convicted and jailed his search for repentance and for the identity of the person responsible for his demise leave him in a state of perpetual unrest that is until the final day of his sentence when the answers he s been seeking are at last revealed to him beautifully written and evocative this novel contrasts the reverberations of trauma with long held often misguided notions of who is and is not worthy of redemption
