this inspirational collection of sermons by the renowned preacher author and speaker is based on the gospel of matthew

no greater contrast can be found in all of the bible than that between the future prospects of the redeemed and the unrepentant on one hand the awe inspiring promise of eternal comfort in the presence of jesus christ on the other the terror and dread of eternal separation in that place called hell warren w wiersbe has chosen twelve classic sermons on heaven and hell that will both comfort and challenge the reader to face eternal realities

we in these pages seek to better acquaint you with this strange and wonderful country a country where there are no tears or heartaches no sickness pain or death those who live there never grow weary carry no burdens and never grow old no one ever says goodbye and there are none of life s disappointments there in this country you will find that there is no sin for no one does wrong you will travel for thousands of miles and never see a cemetery or meet a funeral procession for on one ever dies nothing ever spoils there flowers never lose their fragrance leaves are always green there are no thunderstorms no erupting volcanoes no earthquakes upon those fair shores hurricanes and tidal waves never beat there are no germs or fevers no pestilences of any kind and it is always light for there is no night there no clouds ever darken the sky no harsh winds ever blow there are no drunkards in that country for no one ever drinks none are immoral men as well as women are pure prisons jails and reformatories never darken its landscape doors have no locks windows no bars for thieves and robbers never enter there no lustful books are read no sexy pictures shown no taxes are paid no rent collected and it is a country free from war and bloodshed yes and no cripples are to be seen none are deformed or lame nor is anyone blind deaf or dumb for all are healthy and strong no beggars are seen on the streets for none are destitute leprosy and cancer palsy and tuberculosis are words never heard in this country no asylums are there for none are feeble minded doctors are never needed and hospitals are unknown what country is this it is called heaven the home of the saved where god shall be with us and be our god and god shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying neither shall there be any more pain for the former things are passed away rev 21 4 let these great men of god tell you what is yet in store for all who have trusted the saviour unsaved friend do you not want to go to such a country then why not get ready now it isn t difficult all you have to do is trust christ as your saviour then when the journey of life is ended you too can go to this wonderful country and dwell there forevermore curtis hutson jacket flap since the days he shook the pulpits of victorian london with christ centered passion each succeeding generation seems to discover charles spurgeon anew featuring stirring sermons on heaven and hell this collection offers homiletic gems from the prince of preachers in sermons as timeless as their topics spurgeon combines keen intellect scriptural truth and a zeal for making god known to a world in darkness this captivating sermon collection explores the many blessings that we receive from god through our experiences of both sorrow and joy terry s brilliantly illustrated sermons will empower those in need with the confidence to conquer their adversities through their faith in christ he provides a rich insightful exploration into each of the timeless beatitudes terry points to other works on the beatitudes and warns that those works may be a bit misleading because they imply that happiness is something outside of oneself something that can be acquired like a warm puppy the beatitudes are thought to be central among those words of jesus that turned upside down the values of the common social order many view these words as a summary of christ s ethical teachings yet terry emphasizes that they are much more than a set of commandments these beatitudes are not a to do list nor are they rules or moral laws but are rather promises that will be fulfilled in god s time they contrast our immediate reaction to present events with the promise of god s final actions they are not the do attitudes terry writes but the be attitudes
